

Politician/Decision Maker

NAME

George Washington

ROLE AND EMPLOYER

A member of parliament and mayor of one of the largest cities of Baltimore. He has supported the prime minister in the development of the new Climate Law for Baltimore.

COUNTRY OF RESIDENCE

Baltimore

CHARACTERISTICS

He has been involved in politics for a long time and part of several governments as minister of digital economy and European affairs.

WORK ENVIRONMENT AND COLLEAGUES

He constantly goes from one meeting to another, with large variety of people ranging from colleagues in the parliament to the staff in his town hall, via the many citizens who reach out him for various reasons. He struggles to find enough time to research topics in depths, but can surround himself with valuable advisors, who base advice on facts and science.

OPINION ON CLIMATE CHANGE

His party praises what he calls a "pragmatic" ecology that defends the environment without giving up nuclear energy. He is against wind turbines. He says he wants to embody an encouraging ecology, rather than being in a state of "prohibition" and "punishing" purchasing power.
